

There Is Power in Submission

Description

Romans 13:1-14

God uses even the ungodly to bring His will to pass. Little did Judas, Herod, the chief priests and the Roman soldiers know that they were working out God's plan even while they betrayed and convicted Jesus. Nailing him to the cross, they guaranteed our salvation. Who would have guessed this was God's plan? How could God bring beauty from this atrocity?

Jesus, who had done no wrong, received the punishment for every wrong that every human has committed. Those who put him to death witnessed the ultimate display of submission. Do you see the economy of Christ? Submission can yield more power than power itself. It's baffling to those with a worldly view. Gandhi and Mother Teresa are modern-day examples of how powerful it is to simply submit.

Are you facing a challenge that seems ugly and insurmountable? Do you feel you have no voice, no authority to speak on your own behalf?

God's word applies: "Love is the fulfillment of the law" (Romans 13:10b), "Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ" (Ephesians 5:21).
